NEW BUILDING PLANNED IN HEART OF CITY

A new 20-story office building will be erected on the west, adjoining the Exchange building, if plans now under consideration are carried out. Negotiations, which have extended over several months, are rapidly being drawn to a close. The deal involves the land and buildings just west of the present Exchange building, including a tract that would be 15 feet on South Court avenue, a similar distance on Madison avenue and about 200 feet between those two avenues. Options have been secured on the property, which is owned on Court by the Snowdens and on Madison by the Hines estate, the National City bank and the Snowdens. The proposed new building, if it is erected, will be a duplicate of the present Exchange building, one of the handsomest office buildings in the South. No details of the probable cost have been made public. C. G. Smith, manager of the Exchange Building company, said that the deal has not been closed and that it will not be known until the latter part of the week whether it will be carried through or not. It has been known among stockholders of the Exchange Building company for months that such a deal was pending, and the need for more office space in the central business district has been urged as a strong argument for carrying through the negotiations. There has been a sentiment among many members of the cotton exchange for a long time in favor of moving the exchange closer to the center of the cotton trade, and the need for more office space for the exchange in some of the buildings in that district or of erecting a new building there. No definite plans have been made, however. The Cotton exchange pays a rental for its present quarters of $600 a month to the Exchange Building company.

Skilled Soldiers and Farm Managers and Workers Needed

Many positions in the skilled trades and other lines of employment are open and being reported, according to records in hand at the United States government employment service, 303 East Court avenue. Although it may not be possible to get positions for all the returning soldiers, whose ranks are daily becoming greater with the arrival of more discharged men, yet it behooves skilled workmen to look well into the opportunities afforded by the government, according to Fred D. Benke, publicity director. Employers and others needing help from outside the city are beginning to be awakened. Through the employment service, The News Scimitar and other publicity channels the requests for soldiers daily increase. Plantation and farm managers seen especially to be in demand. Men anxious to work along this line are urged to make application at once, as there are some requests for farm labor that are being filled in several instances. It is stated that a crop will be lost if help is not forthcoming soon. If a soldier does not desire to remain on the farm permanently there are many opportunities for him to take up that and other lines temporarily at least, until industrial conditions are better and army demobilization complete. Soldiers, come in. Tell what you want. Meanwhile, Mr. Employer, remember that it will be harder to get a soldier than it is now. Here's the blank. Fill it in:

Loan Terms Liberal.

The Memphis Cleaning House association, it was announced Tuesday, will wait the official bulletin from the government before announcing the exact terms upon which loans will be made on the new securities. Assurances were made, however, that advances will be on a very liberal basis and that the bonds will truly be the poor man's security. Loans will be made also to persons desiring to use the proceeds for the purchase of Victory bonds at a very liberal rate, according to Memphis bankers Tuesday.

Divisional meetings will be the rule the rest of the week. The baby tanks will be ready for business by Saturday, the women all set for the greatest week in Memphis history. Every energy will be made to put the loan over in the quickest possible time.

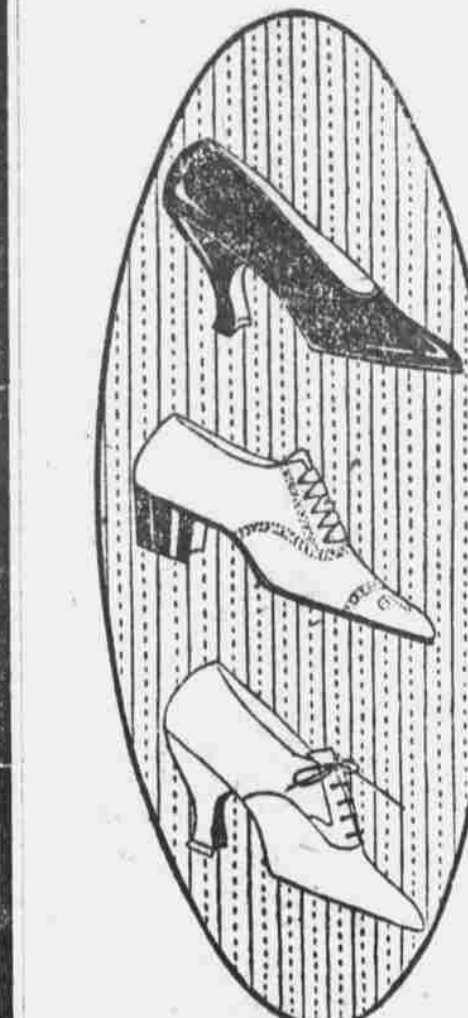

Following the receipt Tuesday morning of the news, Shelby's figures of $2,494,500, workers at once went to work to apportion the amount among the various lines of business. The amount in round numbers, $2,500,000, the allotments were as follows:

LOAN SPEAKERS AND TANKS OUTLINE TOUR

What is expected to awaken the real patriotic bond buying impulse will be the address of Lieut. Arthur E. Dwert, chairman A. E. F., who will address bond salesmen and the general public interested in the Victory loan, at the Goodwyn Institute next Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock. Lieut. Dwert's address at the recent meeting of bond workers of Mississippi and Tennessee was the feature of the day, and he is expected to create a stronger impression on the occasion of his second visit. Fresh from Europe's battlefields, Lieut. Dwert, who was right in the first line all the time, brings home in a vivid way the trials and horrors of battle and strikes home the appeal of the nation to her citizens to buy bonds and finish the war.

An itinerary for workers in North Mississippi and West Tennessee for speakers and tank trains is being mapped out by C. W. Metcalf. Lieut. Dwert will speak at several towns in the territory, as will Maj. Beane Waring, probably Senator K. D. McKellar, Congressman Finis J. Garrett and other prominent public men.

One group of workers will make the following schedule: Tuesday, April 22, Jackson, Miss.; Wednesday, April 23, Greenville, Miss.; morning, Indianola, afternoon, Greenwood, night, Thursday, April 24, Bogalusa, La.;
